CH.A.O.S. is a non-profit organization for Child Care Providers in Janesville, WI, Rock County and surrounding communities. Founded in 1984 as an in-home support group for Family Child Care Providers, membership is open to all who advocate for providers, children and families. We are a "by the provider / for the provider" led group, offering support, educational training and professional growth opportunities for our membership. The goals we have set are to benefit Child Care Providers, the children we care for and the families in our community.
